THE HERALD

The Herald will be conducted as a Conservative journal, devoted to the interests of the Calgary District. Since its commencement it has been one of the foremost and most widely circulated newspapers west of Winnipeg, and nothing in its future will be left undone to ensure it an even greater success than it has enjoyed in the past. Its principles are summed up in the declaration that it has the interests of this district at heart, and on all occasions consider these first and foremost.

The Half-Breed Commission

The Commissioners appointed to settle the half-breed claims concluded their sittings in Calgary on Saturday last, although, as will be seen from a reference to our advertising columns, they will be continuing their sittings here next Tuesday. They claim in all were disposed of at this point, making 258 that have been settled in all by the commission up to date. It looked at first as if the Calgary half-breeds would refuse to accept the first offer. They refused from the Commission, even if they could not give legal notice of writ to the writ might represent them. They also wished to be allowed to take by bond on mortgage, but the Commission refused. They further wished to have a letter sent given to children last night 1923. None of these requests were in the power of the commission to grant. They referred to the boards that the terms they were empowered to offer were such as had been accepted as satisfactory by the half-breeds at the Agency after consultation on the subject. The Commission further stated, however, that more than two of the claims were settled had virtually settled the same for the half-breeds in the territories, and it was impossible that different terms should be granted different individuals. The explanation may be considered as having satisfied the scruples of the Calgary half-breeds for the time being, as they were accepted by the majority, and it is to be supposed that the boards in this district have virtually concluded an arrangement with the government which will provide them from the right to make any future demands whatever.

In effect the commissioners have received a great triumph for the government. Their mission was two which required great skill and tact and they have made the most and best of the powers entrusted to them. That the half-breeds of the railway belt have almost unanimously accepted the terms offered will, however, be of little use unless the government might have been offered as regards the terms themselves. The question of half-breed rights of the future requires settlement in the country before 1923, cannot now be regarded either as settled, in this part of the country at least. It is now to be hoped that the work begun with such happy effect will be completed. The commissioners have in the course of their work come across several cases which did not come within their province to settle but which they printed to report at Ottawa. If these cases were sufficiently important to induce such a promise, they are important enough to settle, and it will not be considered surprising that the districts where such cases exist expect now that the government is in the granting round, to have them settled at, or, at least, they are sufficient cause to indicate it will be done.

If the government's present policy is limited by the drift of public feeling, in the east, it would seem that as there is money to be made, it would be the logical and known and to secure some amount of satisfaction from the tribes are the cardinal points of the policy now about to be adopted at Ottawa in regard to the territories.

Stock Exchange

The stock exchange in Calgary is a very active one, and the market is generally well supplied with securities. The following are the closing prices of the principal stocks as reported by the Calgary Stock Exchange:

THE WEEK'S TELEGRAMS.

Batoche Captured. Captain French Shot.

WESTERN, May 28.—(Gen. Middleton struck camp yesterday morning, moving forward on Gabriel's Crossing, where an engagement is expected to-day.

The Indian line on Otter's fight on Sunday was now closed at 105. The 2 men pounders became disabled by the trucks breaking down during the engagement and it is to be that Col. Otter's withdrawal was due. The enemy was almost completely silenced. The retirement was made in perfect order and was the result of a perfect piece of gunnery.

The fight lasted seven hours and the men had no sleep the night before and no breakfast. Several fell asleep while lying in skirmishing line after the enemy had been silenced for some time.

The sun was very hot and no water could be got. The Indians have received severe punishment and will get more of it. Reinforcements are now on the way from Swift Current.

LATES: News has just been received that the engagement of Otter with Indians was more decisive than all first reports. It totally demolished the Indian Camp and killed 150 Indians and half-breed. Otter's men were fresh and the light landed all day. The Indians finally retired 15 miles Northwest of Poundmaker's reserve where it is expected they will be joined by the Fort Pitt Indians. Gen. Strangle has been ordered to join Otter and place the Indians between two fires.

GABRIEL'S CROSSING, May 28.—Middleton's forces arrived here yesterday. Scouts came in today from the north report the rebels occupying a heavily entrenched position at Batoche Crossing. The troops were ordered to continue their march this morning. They will encounter near Batoche tonight and be ready to attack the enemy to-morrow (Saturday).

CALCAN'S CROSSING, May 28.—A. A. 100 wagons with provisions and forage arrived this afternoon from Moon Jaw. They report the trail cool, and it is likely this route will be used in bringing up supplies for the army.

The wounded at Saskatoon are reported doing well.

Gen. Middleton's command resumed their march this morning, and it is expected will reach Gabriel Dumont's Crossing to-night.

Should the half-breed dispute their march a battle may take place there to-morrow.

FAVORITE CROSSING, May 28.—We are having another engagement with a large force of rebels at Batoche as I write. We left camp 6 a.m. this morning leaving all the supplies and tents behind. We march at 7 miles without seeing the enemy, but suddenly the sound of the shelling, which blowing certain way attracted our attention. Hearing no more we heard the sound of heavy firing on our front in the direction of the river. Our line of march was as follows:—First, Boulton's scouts accompanied by a galling fire; the Indians then formed the advance guard with "A" battery; 70th battalion supported them with the Winnipeg battery and the Midland battery in reserve.

Directly the firing was heard we fired a signal. The enemy's scouts were sent and galling them pushed rapidly ahead and came upon two houses near the bank of the river, which have very good protection. The advance party of rebels who had first had returned behind a house towards a hollow. The galling was brought to bear on them when they ran into the house near the Church of St. Laurent, which was also fired on by the galling when they ran into the house. "A" Battery by this time had come up with a rock and got into position, sending shells after the rebels.

The rebels immediately commenced firing. The galling advanced in skirmishing line and the rebels who were on the trail, the galling being pushed forward down the declivity towards Batoche now plainly visible in the valley below.

Here "A" battery which was on the top of the ridge sending shells into them was nearly surprised by a number of the rebels who crept up through the bush, not being discovered until they were only 20 yards distant. They made a rush for our guns, firing and yelling as they ran. Capt. Howard, who operates the galling gun, saw the danger and with only one man and his gun a couple of yards in front of the battery and, opening fire, literally mowed the rebels down.

Those remaining turned, and ran for Batoche, the shelter of the bank they sought again, and Howard's escape from injury was somewhat precarious.

The rebels, unable to sustain the terrible fire, returned to the pit constructed in the ravine running from the river.

Our line was now as follows:

Company of the Midland with the Winnipeg Battery supported by "C" company of the 8th, in the center and extending across to the right where the Grenadiers were supported on the left by "B" company of the 8th, on the right by "D" company of the 8th, and the extreme right by "F" and "A" companies. The "A" battery occupied the left position, afterwards returning to the right near the upper Col. Strangleman, who commands the entire infantry force in the field.

The last of the rebels who were on our side is as follows: "A" Battery—Dumont Phillips shot through the shoulder, and in the ravine; he died while being carried in.

Then, 3 shot ran over by mistake, and fatal. Captain Fairbanks and Stanley shot in the leg. Captain Fairbanks was shot 2 Company slightly wounded in thigh. French's wounds, R. Cook slightly wounded in the leg. Captain Allen is disabled. Captain Fry shot through both legs, not fractured. At 2 p.m. the rebels were gradually coming the troops however with left up a mountain line and the line gradually shortened until 4 o'clock when only a few straggling shots were heard. No more shot or our side.

The Very Latest.

RECEIVED, May 12.—Batoche was taken at 4 p.m. today and the prisoners released. The rebels are in full flight today. The troops made a rapid advance down into Batoche, capturing the rifle pits and driving the rebels before them. The fighting was desperate, many of our brave fellows being the dust. With a tremendous cheer our men dashed down on Batoche, capturing the houses and surrounding the prisoners. 7 in number, named McDonald, Thos. Brothers, H. Rose, Asper McDonald, Jackson Brother's and others.

Our loss is 30th. Young slight flesh wound in thigh. Sgt. Jones in hand. Capt. J. O. Gillies, slight wound in calf. Sgt. Major Watson in hand, all doing well. Grenadiers, L. Laflamme slightly wounded. Major Dawson slight wound in ankle. Private Burton shot in thigh and groin. Capt. Belliveau, face and arm slightly. L. H. Galloway brother of the Capt. Belliveau, shot in the arm. Sgt. Quigley, Marshall, all slightly wounded.

Capt. Fitch was shot through the heart and died at the moment. Capt. French of the 2nd was shot while gallantly leading in his own hand.

Our loss now is 3 killed and 10 wounded. The stream is now coming down the river with three companies of the School of Infantry and some police on board, and will cut off the rebels returning to the north.

A few days ago the engagement the following correspondence passed between Middleton and Riel. First Riel sent a wire fire, carried by a prisoner named Ashby, with the following message:—

"If you do not cease firing on our houses thereby ignoring our families, we will massacre the prisoners, commencing with Indian Agent Lash."

Middleton replied:—

"Let us know where your women and children are and we will not fire on them."

Riel replied thanking him for his courtesy, but subsequently, as our troops advanced forward to attack, he penned us an envelope:

"All don't like war, I conclude to massacre the prisoners."

However before he had time to go through with the programme, our boys were on them and the prisoners were released. It was a splendid gallant affair. The rebels now must be very heavy. Twelve dead must have already been found. Another hundred a number of Riel's council has just been brought in as prisoners.

Private Fraser of the 8th and Capt. Brown of Batoche's scouts were killed. Up to Sunday evening the following were killed:—Private L. Moore, killed. Scottie, wounded. Private Crowell and Martin dangerously wounded. Of a Battery Captain Phillips killed. Private Galt, killed. Private Thompson, killed. Of French's scouts B. Cook killed. Allen, slightly wounded. Capt. Dennis of the surveyors, and A. O. Wheeler, slightly wounded.

Our loss is 30th. Young slight flesh wound in thigh. Sgt. Jones in hand. Capt. J. O. Gillies, slight wound in calf. Sgt. Major Watson in hand, all doing well. Grenadiers, L. Laflamme slightly wounded. Major Dawson slight wound in ankle. Private Burton shot in thigh and groin. Capt. Belliveau, face and arm slightly. L. H. Galloway brother of the Capt. Belliveau, shot in the arm. Sgt. Quigley, Marshall, all slightly wounded.

Bribery and Corruption.

The members of Gen. Strangle's command were offered a bonus of five dollars a piece if they made to within five miles of Edmonton Friday night. They beat the time by half a day.

The Slaughter of Priests.

So far as known four priests have already fallen victims to the rebellion. These are Fathers Fafard, Marchand and Le Goff killed at Frog Lake and Fort Pitt by Indians and Father Fournelle, acolyte, killed by half-breeds near Batoche. The last named however is not yet confirmed.

Presentations.

On Friday last Mr. Millward, Noble Grand of no. 1 Alberta Lodge, I. O. O. F. in behalf of his lodge, presented the Rev. J. Dyke with a handsome collar, regalia, in token of the esteem in which the reverend gentleman is held. Mr. Dyke acknowledges the gift with thanks.

Harbors.

The 6th, 7th, and Minnesota companies of the Winnipeg Light Infantry are being supplied, on the suggestion of Dr. Tracy, boats and the motor corps in town, with Harbors in place of the Glenary camps which the men had been wearing. The suggestion was as excellent one as the boys will find when they commence their 30-mile a day march to-morrow.

A New Ranch.

Frank White, late manager of the Cochrane ranch, is about to start a sheep ranch on his own account on the Ghost River, just west of the Most Royal ranch. He intends to stock it with Montana sheep and will go south presently to purchase his stock. Under such an experienced hand as Mr. White's the enterprise cannot fail to be successful.

The March to Edmonton.

The marching order of Gen. Strangle's command on the way out was as follows: In front, on the road, three scouts, flanked on each side by two others. Two police on the road flanked on each side by two scouts. Main body of police and scouts, wagons and supplies. Four companies of infantry, 100 men, under Col. Hughes. Battered by scouts; commissariat train, 200 wagons; rear guard of scouts.

A Dash for Freedom.

During the excitement on Friday at Beaver creek on account of the fire, Messrs Pat Talbot and the Kid Barnes, escaped from the guard room, where they had been held in restraint for some time, and took train for Calgary. They were re-arrested by constable Ingram who had been informed of their escape by Mr. H. Johnson, Acting-commanding officer of the Mountain special police.

Arms for Pine Creek.

A resident at Pine Creek has explained to us that it was not because they felt so secure from trouble that the Pine Creek settlers had not called on Major Walker for the arms provided by the government for them, but because the teams had all gone north on the 10 to a day racket to Edmonton. On the contrary they would rather like the arms and the first empty wagon returning from Calgary to Pine Creek will call for them and take them out.

Field Hospital Corps No. 1.

Field hospital corps no. 1, now in Calgary arrived here on April 20th. It then consisted of Doctors Douglas, Tracy, Powell, and dresser, Carver, Carver, Hill, McKenzie, McDowell and Lawson, and orderly McPherson and Armstrong. Dr. Douglas returned to Swift Current on the 25th, taking with him Hill and McKenzie. Since then Dr. Powell has gone north as acting surgeon to Capt. Perry's troops of Mounted Police, and Messrs. McKenzie and McDowell have gone north with Dr. Pennefather. The major Dr. Tracy is charge of the hospital corps here. The building used by the medical corps is the old Mounted Police hospital. Outfits have been provided for Doctors Douglas and Powell (O. W. M. P.) and Pennefather (Winnipeg Light Infantry) out of the stores of the hospital corps here. Local Painters.

Neil McLeod has returned from the mountains.

Messrs. Hattie and Ralston, members of Montana, left for the south yesterday having come up to visit Calgary.

Mr. W. R. Roberts has been appointed an Insurer of Marriage Licenses. We hope to see a large number of young men give him a call.

In Father Lamache's late trip to the north he rode 400 miles in ten days. That is somewhat of a feat.

Aren't made last week that there is some good stock at Commag's stable has been a challenge from Donald A. O. McDonald that he has better stock than Commag's and in fact some of the best stock in the country, and he will back his horses against any man's, for any amount at any time, in any place, at any season. We think that is a bold statement. It is unnecessary to say that Commag has given us a counterclaim stating that he will back his horses against any man's, for any amount at any time, in any place, at any season. We think that is all Mr. Commag's had to say on the subject. It is somewhat like what Mr. McDonald said in an opinion that it is time to have a little rest.

Another Saw Mill.

Messrs. McVittie, Dr. Henderson, Lt. Cochrane and Frank White are about to erect a saw mill at Big Hill, 30 miles west of Calgary. Ten days are already anticipated for.
